

Dear President Putin 2.0 --- A Message From the Actual USA

By Anna Von Reitz

We read with alarm and interest the announcement that the "Russian Sanctions" have spurred you to invoke a Trade War with the United States.

Please remember that the United States is not the same as the unincorporated United States of America, and that we are not broke and not obligated to pay their debts above and beyond those few service charges that they can legitimately charge to our accounts. We are in fact the Paramount Security Interest Holders and Priority Creditors of the entire rest of the world.

Also please remember that the population of the United States is very small, not more than a few million total and concentrated mostly in the ten square miles of the District of Columbia. The rest of us are Americans and not "US Citizens" of any stripe, so please leave us out of your calculations and plans for reprisals. We have suffered enough as innocent Third Parties and hold everyone responsible for the continued practice of lumping us under the "US" banner and failing to observe the facts.

The American people have been viciously misrepresented and defrauded by the United States and the British Crown, the British Monarch, and the various Popes, especially since 1860 when the Great Fraud began.

There are those of us smart enough to observe that creating a wedge between the Americans and the Russians is a practical and philosophical goal of the monarchists and Papists who have sought to keep apart two countries devoted to the welfare of working men and common people as opposed to elites.

It is in their interests to keep America and Russia at each other's throats, but it is not an advantage to either one of us. Their "divide and conquer" strategy in this respect is all too apparent and also too self-interested and consistent throughout history.

Come now, Mr. Putin. You are a smart man. You know that your quarrels are with a few rotten apples who merely pretend to represent us. Now that we have made other arrangements to maintain our constitutional form of government, it's time to deal with us and forget about them or call them what they are---- British and Dutch puppets who have done enough damage to the American people.

The United States is now and always has been under the direction of the British Monarch, so if you want to fight with someone over this recent outrage, we suggest that you target London, preferably Fleet Street, and leave us out of it.

The further fact is that the United States is tiny, useless, and defended only by the Puerto Rican Navy and the Home Guard on Guam, it's broke, in bankruptcy, and basically not worth spitting on.

The British Monarchy which has preyed upon and used and abused Puerto Rico as a base for its piracy against us for the better part of a century and a half, has tossed the island and its people away like a used nose-rag, which really shows the world what to think and what to expect of any partnership with them. Zero sympathy for the people of Puerto Rico, zero sense of responsibility for what they created and foisted off on the Puerto Ricans.

These are the same people who created and enforced the vicious British Raj on India, and used the enslavement of the British people to provide the collateral to finance this brutal domination of the Indian Subcontinent, the same racists who considered "brown men" to be eternally subhuman, the same arrogant, mean, ugly men who kept the Indian people from harvesting salt from the sea at gun point and bayonet.

No doubt you are thinking that the Dutch East India heirs who promoted the USA, Inc., are just as bad or worse--- and we tend to agree. However, we are not them. We are the unincorporated United States of America. The actual government of this country.

Please take the time to realize that Russia and the rest of the world and even many of the American people have been bamboozled by the con men who have usurped and trespassed upon us, but in truth and in fact, the US is not America, and we are no longer responsible for them or their debts or their war-mongering foreign policies.

We have restored our lawful government and it is divorced from the British hegemony and the Dutch slavers alike, independent, unincorporated, and free at last. Please take the time to consider what we are saying and if you are bent upon destroying "the United States" kindly bypass the rest of us on the way to Washington, DC.

We don't have a dog in the fight and don't fancy suffering any more nonsense. We have no Russian Sanctions. We are not bound by the US Congress, and perhaps more importantly, we are not bound by the Bankruptcy Trustees named by Secondary Creditors of the UNITED STATES or the USA, Inc. and we do not assume their debts.

Thank you, sincerely---- the American states and people, and their actual government, which is not now and never has been incorporated.
